

INDIANA

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
402 W. Washington St., RM W195
Indianapolis, IN 46204

Bulk
Mail

COOPERATIVE PROGRAMS OFFERED BY THE INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

VPP & INSHARP are cooperative programs offered by the Indiana Department of Labor that recognize or help implement a safety and health program in your company that is in OSHA compliance

Answer the questions below to decide which cooperative program best fits your company!

VPP

INSHARP

- Do you have access to a safety & health professional? (YES)
- Would you be willing to submit a written safety and health plan to the Indiana Department of Labor? (YES)
- Are management and employees committed to safety and health in your company? (YES)
- Does your company have DART and TCIR below the State's average for your industry? (YES)

Do you have access to a safety & health professional? (NO)

Would you request a full service safety and health evaluation from the Indiana Department of Labor? (YES)

Would you implement and maintain a safety and health management program? (YES)

Are management and employees committed to safety and health in your company? (YES)

Will you commit to lowering your company's DART and TCIR below the state's average for your industry? (YES)

Does your company have fewer than 250 employees in Indiana or 500 employees nationwide? (YES)

Please contact our VPP Manager with further questions.

Mike Gaskill, VPP Manager
Indiana Department of Labor
402 W. Washington St., RM W195
Indianapolis, IN 46204 • 419.749.1502
indiana809@earthlink.net

Please contact our INSHARP Manager with further questions.

John Duncan, INSHARP Manager
Indiana Department of Labor
402 W. Washington St., RM W195
Indianapolis, IN 46204 • 317.232.7321
joduncan@dol.in.gov

Successful completion of a cooperative program will allow your company to be exempted from OSHA general schedule inspections.